DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Joseph C. Redmond on 8/21/2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 62 (Currently Amended) ~~A medium storing program instructions, executable in a computer system~~ A computer readable medium encoded with a computer program for launching an application runnable in a wireless device and a nearby device connected to an ad-hoc communication network and enabling the wireless device to communicate with the nearby device via the application and perform the following method:

- at start, determining if an application to be launched is in the wireless device;
- if not, copy and install permanently or temporarily in the wireless device, the application;
- from the nearby device and return to start;
- determining if the application is in the nearby wireless device;
- if not, copy the application from the wireless device to the nearby wireless device, and return to start;
- determining if the application running in the nearby device;

if yes, let the wireless device and the nearby wireless device communicate via the application until terminated and return to start;

if not, determine if the application is running in the wireless device;

if yes, return to start, and if not, start the application in the wireless device and return to start.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-63 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Hermann et al., US PAT No. 6,633,757 B1, discloses "Adjacency-bound service discovery", and Peng, US PAT No. 6,738,766 B2, discloses "Apparatus and methods for providing personalized application search results for wireless devices based on user profiles". Both Hermann and Peng do not teach or fairly suggest the following features, which are recited in each independent claim of the present application:

(a) A system and method in an adhoc network comprising the step of:

examine at least one control parameter from the group comprising application states; user- defined application settings and macros ,wherein the macros comprise (i) auto-download, (ii) downloadable, (iii) auto-launch-everything and (iv) transfer and state indications in the combined distributed applications directory associated with the selected prioritized application as recited in claims 1, 7-8, 14-15, 19, 24, 29, 32, 39, 46-47, 53 and 63.

(b) A computer readable medium encoded with a computer program for launching an application runnable in a wireless device and a nearby device connected to an ad-hoc communication network and enabling the wireless device to communicate with the nearby device via the application and perform the following method:

at start, determining if an application to be launched is in the wireless device;

if not, copy and install permanently or temporarily in the wireless device, the application;

from the nearby device and return to start;

determining if the application is in the nearby wireless device;

if not, copy the application from the wireless device to the nearby wireless device, and return to start;

determining if the application running in the nearby device;

if yes, let the wireless device and the nearby wireless device communicate via the application until terminated and return to start;

if not, determine if the application is running in the wireless device;

if yes, return to start, and if not, start the application in the wireless device and return to start as recited in claim 62.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
